

Residence Vodičkova 33

Prague 1 Nové Město, Vodičkova 33

The Art Nouveau building at Vodičkova 33, formerly known as Vítěk's House, offers prestigious office spaces after a complete renovation. The combination of modern technological facilities and the historical charm of the building and its interiors has created a unique space for forward-thinking business on one of Prague's most lucrative street.

All floors provide a divided office layout as well as the possibility of open space. All units include amenities such as toilets, kitchens, and server rooms. Offices in the historical part of the building (2nd-6th floors) are adapted to the original structural framework of the building, but non-load-bearing walls can be fully or partially removed, creating an attractive and inspiring office with a new dimension of space.

The building offers premium commercial spaces with a wide range of uses. With its high standard of finish and generous spaces, the building can be an ideal solution for corporate clients as well as notary or law offices seeking a prestigious address in the heart of Prague.
